

Collegetville - Trappe High School

Class Of 1966

Member Directory As of April 2016

This directory has been prepared for the Class Of 1966, Collegetville - Trappe High School, on the occasion of its 50th Reunion, 30 April – May 1, 2016.

Included are the graduates and many classmates who left the class prior to graduation. Each member's information was provided by that person or verified to the best extent possible.

Classmate Frank Brown has kindly consented to be our class record keeper and will maintain a class contact list. Keeping that list current requires that each of us notify Frank when our contact information changes. Please see his listing for contact information.

Hopefully you will find this directory informative and maybe helpful in renewing some friendships.

Best regards,

The Committee: Fay Lewis Crowell, Phyllis Hunsberger Cooper, Gayle Gibat Wild, Carol Dilullo Parlee, Lois Schlosser Rupe, Eleanor Hood Hollenbach, Marlene Searfoss Thompson, Richard Holcombe, Frank Brown, Glenn White, George Henderson.

After graduating high school, I attended Peirce College and graduated with an Associates Degree in Business Management which lead to my career in the accounting field and my CPA degree.

In 1968, I enlisted in the Navy and applied my skills as a Payroll Dispersement Clerk serving two years on the aircraft carrier, USS Wasp stationed in Newport, RI. My final two years were spent at St Albans Naval Hospital handling payroll and discharges. While in New York, I took evening courses and, upon discharge, I completed my Bachelors Degree at Philadelphia College and continued my education for my CPA license. During this time I was employed with a public accounting firm of which I am the President and principal owner. Fischer Dorwart, P.C. Is located in Audubon, NJ with a satellite office in Harrisburg, PA.

While attending Peirce College I met Antoinette who became my wife in 1970. To date, we have been married 46 years and have two daughters, Kimberly and Lori, who have blessed us with four grandchildren.

After a life of raising our family and residing in Philadelphia and then Cherry Hill, in 2013 decided to move in our summer home in Margate, our permanent residence. Life is good.

Information received covering the 6 years from Fall 1960 to June, 1966

Seventh Grade, 1960-61

We came together in the Fall of 1960 from Collegeville, Trappe and Skippack Elementary Schools. We had met once in the Spring of 1960 when Gomer Edwards welcomed us to the school one afternoon and we took the "tour" of what was to be our home for the next six years.

We went to our first dance in the old gym (what was to become our auditorium by the time we did "Home Sweet Homicide" and "Pillow Talk". We elected the first Catholic President of the United States in the Fall of 1960.

Eighth Grade, 1961-62

Our Second year was uneventful, except that we were still the "young ones on the block". The expansion construction began that year (adding the new gym and the classrooms, so 7th graders stayed at Skippack and Trappe Elementary schools.) Also, the girl's basketball team won the Inter-County Championship!

86 Graduates at Ceremonies At Collegeville-Trappe High

Collegeville-Trappe High School held commencement exercises for the 86-member Class of 1966, Wednesday evening, in the high school gymnasium, Donald Barnhouse, Philadelphia news analyst, was the speaker.

Barnhouse urged the graduates to use their knowledge and abilities to help adjust many of the national and world situations troubling our times. Barnhouse told the graduates that as they become "free" they also become "responsible". The responsibility which comes with freedom is a personal commitment and not dictated by government or political expedient, he commented.

Student Speakers

Student speaker Jean Ottinger posed the question, "What's the Use?" for fellow class members. To the turmoil and the strife of the present day; the constant striving necessary for successful enterprise, she said, graduates may well look, and ask, "What's the Use?"

The speaker infused a significance into all the apparent frustration

tration of the news and challenges of modern living. She tilted reasons for optimism; the reason and need of enthusiasm and striving toward goals. She pointed to the dignity of individuals and gave important reasons for continued interest in ourselves, in others, and in the world around us.

Michael Place secured to echo the plea of many in the modern world in his student talk "Who Cares?". He treated his subject as an indictment of the attitude of indifference in the part of many. This indifference leads to an apathy and general unwillingness to become concerned or involved in worthwhile causes and projects. It degenerates also into a careless disregard for surroundings, a callousness toward evil, and the warping of the personality.

On the optimistic side, the phrase, "Who Cares?" had another meaning to the speaker. He cited instances where people have cared, and do care; and told how "their caring" altered life situations, and improved the human condition.

Senior Class President Jean Ottinger presented the academic class mantle to Kenneth Donahue, president of the Junior class. Graduates were presented for the awarding of diplomas by Fred L. Marshall, high school principal.

Like the old woman in the shoe . . . with eighty-six children, Mrs. Janet Hyatt, our class advisor, sponsored the Class of 1966 with an invincible spirit to achieve success. We remember the impromptu conferences she conducted in homeroom to discuss the inevitable problems of lack of funds and the never-ending need for helpers on the latest project. Through her sympathetic efforts, she guided the officers and the class to such memorable activities as the Class Trip, the Senior Prom, and the Senior Banquet.

Although we've all said it before, publicly or in our hearts, we, the Class of 1966, would like to again thank Mrs. Hyatt for the time and energy that she relinquished to sponsor our class.

The Class of '66 leaves

- Mrs. Hyatt: a bottle of aspirin and nerve pills.
- Mr. Manley: a set of mag wheels for his '51 Chevy and a Mickey Mouse experiment.
- Mrs. Thomas: a pair of ballet slipper, a bottle of cough syrup and a can of cat food.
- Mr. Fretz: a story book called Grimm's Fairy Tales and a volley ball game for health!
- Mr. Greager: all the lost magazines we never returned!!
- Mr. Palomaki: a skate board to get to and from the office faster.
- Mrs. DeWane: memories of student teaching for the 7th grade and a championship basketball team.
- Miss Drescher: a sophomore class candy sale.
- Mr. Lawson: all the love from 12A1 and a free 7th period.
- Mr. Hale: a crash helmet and a tupee!
- Miss Rosciola: all the algebra homework we never did!
- Mrs. Ribble: all the left over yearbook pictures and a proper prospective of the demerit board!
- Miss Berger: a used earthworm already dissected.
- Mr. Yeakel: a bottle of used Ban, a cake of Safeguard, a pair of old gym sneakers and a copy of the book Pride and Prejudice.
- Mr. Grant: a free trip to Moscow to visit Lenin's tomb.
- Miss Shook: Mr. George Beck, smearless ditto carbon, and dustless chalk.
- Mrs. Krug: all the extra copies of the Red and Gold.
- Mr. Storti: left over pizza pie from Consumer's Ed. Class.
- Miss Major: a home Toni permanent and a box of kleenex
- Mr. Aman: a plaid shirt, a polka dot tie, and a book of color schemes.
- Mrs. Gyger: a pass slip to her locker.
- Mr. Thompson: a ball and chain to secure his tool chest!
- Mr. Marshall: a pair of stilts and book on discipline.
- Mrs. Neagle: all the forged excuse cards we got away with!
- Mr. Leftwich: all the rejections from colleges and some good advice.

Mrs. Glendenning elevator shoes.

THE CLASS REUNION

Author Unknown

Every ten years, as summertime nears,
An announcement arrives in the mail.
A reunion is planned; it'll be really grand,
Make plans to attend without fail.

I'll never forget the first time we met,
We tried so hard to impress.
We drove fancy cars, smoked big cigars,
And work our most elegant dress.

It was quite an affair, the whole class was there.
It was held at a fancy hotel.
We wined, and we dined, and we acted refined,
And everyone thought it was swell.

The men all conversed about who had been first
To achieve great fortune and fame.
Meanwhile, their spouses described their fine houses
And how beautiful their children became.

The homecoming queen, who once had been lean,
Now weighed in at one-ninety-six.
The jocks who were there had all lost their hair,
And the cheerleaders could no longer do kicks.

No one had heard about the class nerd
Who'd guided a spacecraft to the moon.
Or poor little Jane, who's always been plain,
She married a shipping tycoon.

The boy we'd decreed "most apt to succeed"
Was serving ten years in the pen.
While the one voted "least", now was a priest.
Just shows you can be wrong now and then.

They awarded a prize to one of the guys
Who seemed to have aged the least.
Another was given to the grad who had driven
The farthest to attend the feast.

They took a class picture, a curious mixture
Of beehives, crew cuts and wide ties.
Tall, short, or skinny, the style was the mini,
You never saw so many thighs.

At our next get-together, no one cared whether
They impressed their classmates or not.
The mood was informal, a whole lot more normal,
By this time we'd all gone to pot.

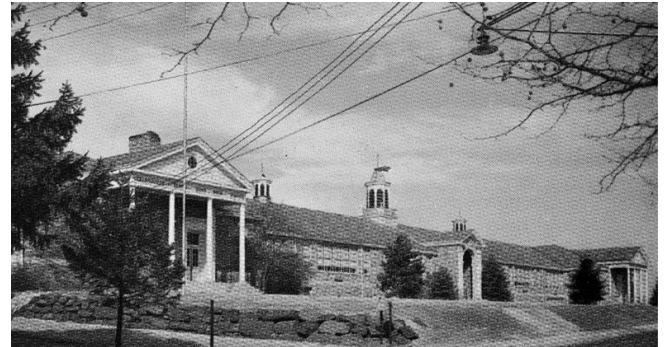

It was held out-of-doors, at the lake shores,
We ate hamburgers, coleslaw, and beans.
Then most of us lay around in the shade,
In our comfortable T-shirts and jeans.

By the fortieth year, it was abundantly clear,
We were definitely over the hill.
Thos who weren't dead had to crawl out of bed,
And be home in time for their pill.

And now I can't wait, they've set the date.
Our fiftieth is coming, I'm told.
It should be a ball, they've rented a hall
At the Shady Rest Home for the old.

Repairs have been made on my hearing aid
My pacemaker's been turned up on high
My wheelchair is oiled, and my teeth have been boiled
And I've bought a new wig and glass eye.

I'm feeling quite hearty, and I'm ready to party
I'm gonna dance 'til dawn's early light.
It'll be lots of fun, But I hope hope that there's one
Other person who can make it that night.

CTHS School Song

Once again here as schoolmates assembled
We fain would lift our hearts on song
To our high school, our dear Alma Mater
Let gladness the moments prolong.
We are proud of our lads and our lasses
Of honors won in days gone by
So here's a cheer for our old high school,
Our dear old high school, our dear old high.

Here's to our classes, here's to the lasses,
Here's to the lads they adore.
Here's to our Seniors so mighty
Juniors so flighty
Freshman and Sophomores.
Let mirth and gladness
Banish all sadness
And as the days go by
You'll find us ready and steady
Boosting for our old high.
